The Easy-to-Read Version (ERV) is an accurate translation of the Bible created by the translation team at Bible League International. New readers sometimes struggle with reading older standardized translations of Bible text because of their unfamiliarity with the Bible. The ERV uses simpler vocabulary and shorter sentences while maintaining the integrity of the original texts. One of the basic ideas that guided the work was that good translation is good communication. In 2015, a major revision was completed in the English text. It uses broader vocabulary and it is revised to reflect new cultural perspectives. The ERV is now in the process of revision for the other language texts while continuing to stay true to the original Biblical texts.¹

THE WORD IN ART SERIES

68 | EXODUS 2:5

attendants were walking along the riverbank. And when she saw the basket among the reeds, she sent her maidervant to retrieve it. ⁶When she opened it, she saw the child, and behold, the little boy was crying. So she had compassion on him and said, "This is one of the Hebrew children." ⁷Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and call one of the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?" ⁸"Go ahead," Pharaoh's daughter told her. And the girl went and called the boy's mother.

⁹Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child and nurse him for me, and I will pay your wages." So the woman took the boy and nursed him.

¹⁰When the child had grown older, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses and explained, "I drew him out of the water."

1002 | MATTHEW 1:10

¹⁰Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amnon, Amnon the father of Josiah, ¹¹and Josiah the father of Jeconiah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.

¹²After the exile to Babylon:

Jeconiah was the father of Shealtiel, Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel, ¹³Zerubbabel the father of Abihud, Abihud the father of Eliakim, and Eliakim the father of Azor.

¹⁴Azor was the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Achim, and Achim the father of Eliud.

¹⁵Eliud was the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, Matthan the father of Jacob, ¹⁶and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

MATTHEW 2:6 | 1003

¹⁷In all, then, there were fourteen generations from Abraham to David, fourteen from David to the exile to Babylon, and fourteen from the exile to the Christ.

The Birth of Jesus

¹⁸This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about: His mother Mary was pledged in marriage to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹Because Joseph her husband was a righteous man and was unwilling to disgrace her publicly, he resolved to divorce her quietly.

²⁰But after he had pondered these things, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to embrace Mary as your wife, for the One conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. ²¹She will give birth to a Son, and you are to give Him the name Jesus, because He will save His people from their sins."

²²All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet:

²³"Behold, the virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call Him Immanuel" (which means, "God with us").

²⁴When Joseph woke up, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him, and embraced Mary as his wife. ²⁵But he had no union with her until she gave birth to a Son. And he gave Him the name Jesus.

The Pilgrimage of the Magi

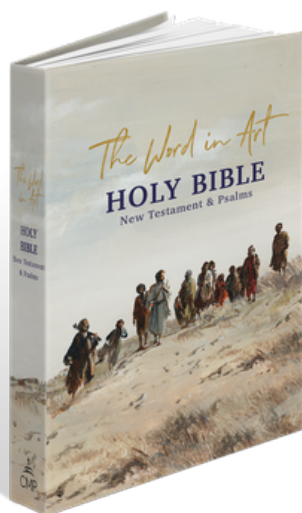

²After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the time of King Herod, Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, ³asking, "Where is the One who has been born King of the Jews? We saw His star in the east and have come to worship Him."

⁴When King Herod heard this, he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁵And when he had assembled all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he asked them where the Christ was to be born.

⁶"In Bethlehem in Judea," they replied, "for this is what the prophet has written:

⁷"But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah, for out of you will come a ruler who will be the shepherd of My people Israel."

Bible translations from various selected English sources will be used for global co-productions.

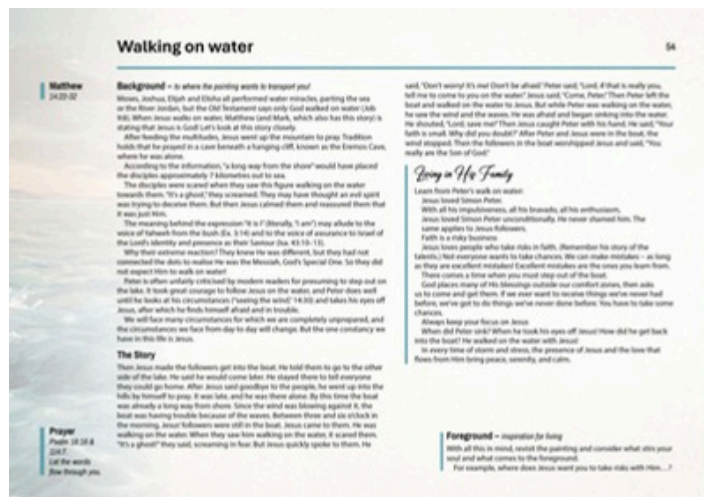

This unique Bible helps Christians understand the story of God like never before.

Bringing together more than 130 of the most important faith moments in Scripture, it shows how these events connect to one another, revealing a single, unfolding story of God's relationship with his people, rather than a series of separate, disconnected stories.

At the heart of this unique Bible is original, hand-painted artwork, created by a single artist to reconstruct the real world in which each event took place. For the first time, real contextual art is used as a way to understand the Bible itself. Every painting is carefully researched to show the true historical, cultural and geographical setting of the story: real people, real places, real circumstances, a real moment in history. The artwork does not simply illustrate the text. It shows the world in which God revealed himself, and helps readers grasp why each encounter mattered.

Every faith moment is presented through Background, Bible Text, Living in His Family and Foreground. The Background sets the story in its historical and cultural context. The Bible Text tells the story itself. Living in His Family invites us to look at the message of the Bible event in today's context. The Foreground invites believers to reimagine the Bible story and its deeper and personal meaning, showing what it reveals about God, and what it means for our lives today.

This Bible is for every believer who wants to understand God's story more deeply. It is also a rich resource for parents, grandparents, church groups, Bible-study groups and faith communities to read, explore, discuss and discover together.

Boy Jesus in the Temple

Luke
2:40-52

Background – > when the paring went to transport you

This is the 12th account of Jesus' life from his birth to the age of his ministry, 14 years later. It contains the only verses attributed to him during this first 14 years on earth. When you read the adult's narrative in the temple, "Everyone who heard him was amazed at his understanding and his answers." It is clear that Jesus was mature beyond his years.

A summary of Jesus' adult profile appears in 2:21 and 52, and it is indicated that Jesus was full of wisdom and grace. He was pleasant and kind, and so were the people who knew him.¹

The teachers in the temple had great potential in a twelve-year-old. They weren't just charmed with him; of their questions, they were recording. They came:

- A boy with extraordinary memory he could recall and engage with Torah at an adult level
- A boy with sophisticated reasoning he could hold his own in debate
- A boy with eloquent clarity (the high grades he could afford)

A boy with vocational clarity (he had decided to inherit pa'ot "y" must be in my father's house")

He was pre-occupied. When he turned fourteen, the doors of the House of Israel would expect to open to him.

But there was one condition, according to Luke 2:31: "He would want doors to come to him and he came to them and he studied to them." This was the legally required waiting period. At age fourteen, a boy could demonstrate readiness. But he could not formally begin rabbinic training.

The legal threshold was age fourteen – the age of sexual development, when a boy chose either the family route or the life of a scholar.

So, Jesus returned to Nazareth. He submitted to his parents' authority, helped in the workshop, and maintained the appearance of normality. But everyone also noticed – the teachers in Jerusalem, the family in Nazareth, and Jesus himself – knew what was coming: he was going to Jerusalem for rabbinic training. Perhaps the missing years (11-12 to 30 years) were spent in rabbinic training in Jerusalem.

The Story

Every year, Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the Passover festival. When Jesus was twelve years old, they went for the festival. When they returned, Jesus was not with them. But Jesus didn't disappear. He was found. He didn't know about it.

They looked for a whole day, thinking that Jesus was with them in the group. They began looking with him among their family and close friends, but they just not find him, so they went back to Jerusalem to look for him there.

After three days they found him. Jesus was sitting in the Temple area with the teachers, listening and asking them questions. Everyone who heard him was amazed at his understanding and his answers.

When they found him, his mother said to him, "Your mind and heart were amazed at him. You should have been with us. This was possible. And his mother said, "Son, why did you do this to us? Your father and I were so worried about you. We have been looking for you."

Jesus said to them, "Why did you look for me? I should have known that I must be here with my father's work." But they did not understand the meaning of what he said to them.

Jesus went with them to Nazareth and obeyed them. His mother was still thinking about all these things. At Jesus' growth, he continued to grow in grace. Jesus was pleased with him, and so were the people who loved him.

Living in His Family

This story of Luke explains everything we know about Jesus as a child. Mary and Joseph took baby Jesus to the temple. There we see Jesus as a twelve-year-old boy in the temple. The next chapter traces the baptism of Jesus, the jumps from 12 to 19 to 30 so we also have Matthew's account of the end of the story and the beginning of the new story.

What happened during these short years? [Only these powerful words describe the 30 years of Jesus' life from His baptism His life on earth. He continued to grow in wisdom. God was pleased with him, and so were the people who knew Him.]

During these short years, God the Son spent much of His time on earth discovering what it means to be an ordinary human. If God is God, He embraces the ordinary and changes it into the wondrous and infinite, shouldn't we do the same?

The fact that this, as a family, traveling annually to the Passover celebration, that we have a family (2:41-51) families usually traveled with a carpenter or craftsman (2:44), with children playing together, mothers chatting, and men organizing everything. That is why they only realized that he was missing at 2:44. Luke, Jesus' adult biography would also have him for three days.

But today, Jesus lives. Jesus will always find us, and stay in his love by making Luke 2:52 our goal.

Final thought – always for living

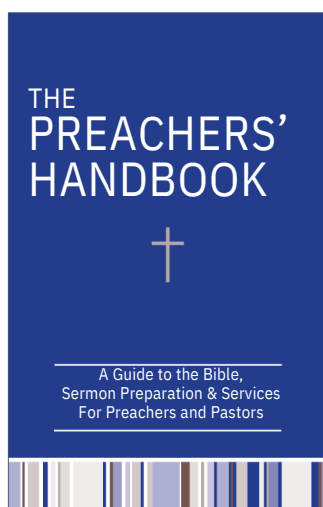

Jesus said, it is mind, word, and the fragrance and reflect on what means your word, what comes to the fragrance?

For example, how can Luke 2:52 become a daily goal?
